Exhibition arrives in Bloemfontein

The Loeries Travelling Exhibition showcasing winning work from the 2010 Loerie Awards will be visiting the Oliewenhuis Museum in Bloemfontein from 20 - 24 June 2011. It is sponsored by Adobe.

Ester le Roux, museum curator said, "We enjoy hosting the exhibition, as it gets a lot of graphic design students to the art museum where they are exposed to South African art. The exhibition also complements our permanent collection as both fine art and graphic design are concerned with visual communication."
