

Hart releases cook book to celebrate 125 years

In celebration of its 125th anniversary, Hart cookware has partnered with local chef Dorah Sitole on a recipe book. The recipe book contains 125 food ideas, including some submitted by Hart customers.

The recipes were all captured by food photographer Elsa Young, and styled by Mokgadi Itsweng. The recipe books are currently available in most major wholesalers and retailers free with the purchase of stickered Hart sets.
