

Spree revamps look, logo

Spree recently unveiled the new look and logo of its website.

The new website design forms part of the online fashion store's plan of having a more modernised look that is synonymous with the offering of local and international brands.

The newly developed logo serves as its move towards a more customer-focused e-commerce company that appeals to both male and female customer.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>