

Darling Brew launches new beer-mix drinks

Darling Brew has released Spirited Flight; a new range of beer-mix drinks that are light in alcohol and an alternative to artificially flavoured beers and ciders.

The range starts off with a lemon Radler named 'Golden Tail'. Golden Tail has lemon and lime flavours acquired from natural essential oils and has 2.6% alcohol.

The company has also launched a series of informative graphics and tips on saving water and the importance of water health.
