

Winning stands at Good Food & Wine Show

The winning stands at this year's Good Food & Wine Show have been selected by judges, Clayton Morar - journalist; Kia Johnson of Dagbreek TV and 2000FM, and Naushad Khan, editor of Next 48 Hours and 48 Hours TV.

Domestos stand

Winners:

- Most Interactive Stand: Joint first: Spar Wine and Canapé Theatre and Spekko Tafelpraatjies presented by Searle's
- Most Innovative Stand: Domestos
- Best Speciality Product Display:

1. Lady Bonin's Tea Parlour;
2. Tea Merchant;
3. Sexy Food

- Best Designer Stand: Incredible India
- Best Fine Wines, Beers and Spirits: Bottega
- Sustainability Awards: Food and Trees for Africa

Says Johnson, "It was clear that some of the exhibitors had put a huge amount of thought and effort into their stands. I particularly liked Lady Bonin's Tea Parlour, a small stand, which was hugely appealing thanks to its welcoming design and the owner's clear passion which shone through."

Khan commented on the Domestos stand, where visitors got to eat food off the floor, proving that it was not only clean but germ free, "It is a simply brilliant concept."

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>