Irish-owned mine acts to protect its SA Moz miners from retaliation

Irish mines company Kenmare Resources has sent 62 miners back home from Mozambique as a precautionary measure following a wave of xenophobic attacks on foreigners in SA.

Read Irish Kenmare sends South African miners in Mozambique home over xenophobia

For more, visit: https://www.bizcommunity.com