

Constantia Glen Two scoops an international accolade

Constantia Glen Two has been recognised as the best South African Sauvignon/Semillon blend at the 2021 International Wine Challenge (IWC).

The 2019 vintage of this flagship white Bordeaux-style blend was awarded gold and 95/100 points by the IWC judging panel. In this year's edition of the IWC, thousands of wines from 50 countries were assessed and judged for their faithfulness to style, region and vintage.

This is the third international accolade for Constantia Glen Two, having scored 93 points at the 2020 Decanter World Wine Awards in London and the Tim Atkin South Africa 2020 special report.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>