

Gunter Rencken named technical director at WEC Projects

Gunter Rencken has been appointed as WEC Projects' new technical director. In his new position, Rencken is tasked with investigating and implementing new water treatment technologies.

He also has the responsibility for investigating new markets for the company. Rencken is registered as a professional engineer with the Engineering Council of South Africa and he is also a member of the Institute of Chemical Engineers and a fellow of Water Institute of Southern Africa.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>