

Banking director Michelle David joins Norton Rose

Leading international law firm Norton Rose has announced that Michelle David, a pension law and employee benefits specialist, has joined its Johannesburg office as a director. Michelle has specialised as a pension funds lawyer since her admission as an attorney. She has developed her experience within the broader employee benefits environment and advises on various Acts and the commercial aspects of them.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>