

Peninsula Hotel restaurant refurbishment pays homage to ocean-side location

Following a recent R800,000 refurbishment at The Peninsula Hotel in Sea Point, the Sunset Restaurant's new interiors pay homage to its ocean-side location.

Sunset Restaurant at The Peninsula All-Suite Hotel (Image Supplied)

“The entire look and feel stem from the restaurant’s location, which overlooks the Atlantic Ocean. With a nautical theme I tried to create a space that will transport guests to a beautiful beach cottage, complete with white clapper clad walls and sun filter curtains, reminiscent of a breezy, romantic summer’s day,” says interior designer Dee de Kock.

Complimenting the new look, The Peninsula’s Faces Bar and Lounge also underwent an upgrade in the refurbishment

Faces Bar and Lounge (Image Supplied)

Set on Sea Point’s platinum mile, The Peninsula All-Suite Hotel is a landmark on Cape Town’s iconic Atlantic seaboard.