

Exploring the marvelous melting pot that is Bo-Kaap

The latest addition to Cape Town Tourism's Love Cape Town's Neighbourhoods series has been released. The video explores the world-famous colourful houses, fragrant spices and cooking, and the marvellous melting pot of cultures that make up Bo-Kaap.

The video series explores different parts of the city and was created with the aim to tap into the global 'travel like a local' travel trend - giving visitors seeking immersive, authentic experiences a chance to discover new places where locals know best in where to eat and what to experience. The series already has a number of special Cape Town destinations under its belt - from Khayelitsha to Constantia.

Khayelitsha like you've never seen it before

18 Jan 2017

If you haven't walked among the colorful houses of the Bo-Kaap or had a Cape Malay koeksister at Biesmiellah Restaurant, this video will inspire you to visit and experience Bo-Kaap's culinary treats, cultural richness, entrepreneurial spirit and warm and welcoming people.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>