

Leeming to replace Stephens as Sun International CE

Sun International executive director and chief executive, Graeme Stephens has been appointed as SKYCITY Entertainment Group's new chief executive officer in New Zealand. For the past five years, Stephens had been tasked with strategically repositioning Sun International.

Stephens is to be replaced by chief financial officer, Anthony Leeming who will start in the role in May of next year. Before his appointment as Sun International CFO, Leeming had held several roles in the finance segment of the company since his commencement 17 years ago.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>