

Dandemutande wins YoAfrica

Zimbabwean's broadband internet service provider, Dandemutande Investments Limited, has acquired internet service provider, YoAfrica Limited.

The partnership will see YoAfrica's technical expertise being harnessed with Dandemutande's market leadership, infrastructure and pan-African reach, providing enterprise customers with a 'one-stop-shop' for all their connectivity needs. The acquisition also sees the strengthening of Dandemutande's national presence and a wider reach for YoAfrica's strong enterprise base.

Dandemutande is part of Gondwana International Networks, a pan-African communications service provider with operations in nine countries.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>