

Lewis Stores names Metacom as its SA communications service provider

Metacom has been named as Lewis Stores' South African communications service provider, already managing 645 stores nationwide with a further 116 stores in Botswana, Lesotho, Namibia and Swaziland for the past year.

Metacom will be tasked with providing Lewis Stores with a full managed WAN connectivity solution that will make use of Fibre, ADSL or satellite as a primary communication medium, with LTE as failover default.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>