

New appointments at Foord Asset Management

Foord Asset Management has appointed Julie Macleod Henderson, Siphesihle Lukhele and Janine Brown to their client service and business development teams, and Niel van den Heever to the Foord dealing desk.

Julie Macleod-Henderson has joined the Foord team as regional head of retail investments for KwaZulu Natal. Julie has worked in the unit trusts industry for most of her career, early on at Standard Bank and Old Mutual and for the past six years at Nedgroup Investments.

Sihle, who comes from Sanlam Investment where he spent eight years, joins Foord as a institutional client service manager.

Janine Brown joins Foord's unit trust investor services and administration team. She was previously head of the international and client service teams at Maitland Fund Services.

Niel van den Heever joins Foord as assistant securities dealer. He had been working at a derivatives trading firm prior to joining Foord.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>