

New roles at Jaguar Land Rover

Jaguar Land Rover South Africa and sub-Saharan Africa (JLR SA and SSA) is primed to capitalise on growth opportunities, following a restructuring of key roles at the organisation. Robin van Rensburg has been promoted to sales director for JLR SA. In this position he will be tasked with driving sales through fleet and business; Jaguar Land Rover's Approved Used programme; regional sales management; and sales planning.

Brian Hastie will take up the newly created position of network director. This role will see him driving growth in the SA and SSA markets - including franchising; network and facility development; performance management; as well as overseeing the training and development of technicians through the Jaguar Land Rover Training Academy.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>