

New jury members for NYF International Advertising Awards includes South African

The New York Festivals International Advertising Awards has announced further executive jury members.

They are:

- Michelle Aglira, creative director, Grey London UK
- Javier Campopiano, chief creative officer, Saatchi & Saatchi New York USA
- Gerard Caputo, executive creative director, BBH NY USA
- Donald Chestnut, worldwide chief creative officer/senior VP, SapientNitro USA
- Justin Drape, co-founder & chief creative officer, The Monkeys Australia
- Wayne Deakins, executive creative director, AKQA UK
- Eric Jannon, group executive creative director, R/GA New York USA
- Jung A. Kim, executive creative director Innocean Worldwide Seoul Korea
- Waifoong Leong, chairman & CCO, BBDO Greater China
- Liam Wielopolski, chief creative officer, DDB South Africa

L-R Donald Chestnut, Javier Campopiano, Justin Drape, Jung A King, Eric Jannon and Liam Wielopolski

“The calibre of this year’s executive jury represents a cross section of some of the most highly regarded creative leaders in the industry today,” said Michael O’Rourke, president of New York Festivals. “This esteemed panel brings a global creative view to the judging room and their ability to recognise ground-breaking creative work ensures entries are judged with the utmost consideration.”

Additional executive jury members will be announced in the coming weeks.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>