

Off the Beat 'n Track set to be family-friendly mountain biking event

Tracker and Jacaranda FM will be presenting the very first Off the Beat 'n Track mountain biking and music event in April. The event offers mountain biking routes which will range from 2kms to 50kms and family members of all ages may participate.

After the race, families will be able to have a picnic while enjoying the sounds of Beatenberg, Majozi and Rubber Duc in concert.
