

Black Inks seals deal with Fox Networks

Black Inks has signed a deal with Fox Networks Group (FNG) Europe and Africa to deliver linear and video-on-demand content from 21st Century Fox.

The entertainment service will be available on Android/ iOS via apps, will have its own set-top box, and on web-browsers.

The deal brings linear and non-linear services to Black, such as eight distinctive channels and Fox+, the new service that will be launching in South Africa for the first time.
