

WWE Live comes back to SA in April 2020

The WWE Live show will make its comeback in South Africa in 2020. Wrestling fans can catch the show at the GrandWest Grand Arena in Cape Town on 29 April 2020 before it heads to the Moses Mabhida Stadium in Durban on 30 April 2020 and will conclude at the Ticketpro Dome in Johannesburg from 1 to 2 May 2020.

Fans attending WWE Live will see their favourite superstars including Seth Rollins, Becky Lynch, Charlotte Flair, Bobby Lashley, The OC, Ricochet, Aleister Black and more.

Seth Rollins

“We are excited to return to South Africa and present four action-packed live events for our passionate fans in the region,” said Stefan Kastenmuller, WWE senior vice president and general manager, EMEA. “Fans can look forward to experiencing a night of family-friendly entertainment that will create lifelong memories.”

Each week, WWE’s flagship programming Raw and SmackDown air live in South Africa exclusively on SuperSport. SuperSport also airs WWE’s monthly pay-per-view specials including WrestleMania, SummerSlam, Survivor Series and Royal Rumble.

WWE LIVE South Africa is promoted by Big Concerts. It will be the first WWE live event in Durban since August 2013, and the first in Johannesburg and Cape Town since April 2018.

Tickets for WWE LIVE South Africa are available this Friday, 6 December 2019 at 9am via www.computicket.com.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>