

Kia wins Good Design awards for Telluride Concept and Cadenza sedan

The Chicago Athenaeum Museum of Architecture and Design and Metropolitan Arts Press presented Kia Motors with two Good Design awards. Kia received the awards for its Telluride Concept and the production Cadenza sedan in the transportation category.

This the seventh year in a row that Kia has received Good Design awards. The Good Design awards are held annually by The Chicago Athenaeum Museum and the jury considers a range of criteria, which includes innovative design, new technologies, form, materials, construction, concept, function, utility, energy efficiency, and sensitivity to the environment when selecting recipients.
