

Basa vacancies

Issued by Business and Arts South Africa

3 Aug 2022

At Business and Arts South Africa NPC (Basa) we are driven to create meaningful, sustainable relationships between business and the arts. Since its inception in 1997, Basa has been a significant catalyst and connector, both cementing and amplifying powerful partnerships between more than 1,600 business and arts partners, to effect meaningful social change. If your skills and experience match one of the roles outlined below, we'd like to chat to you about joining our team:

Marketing and communications manager

(permanent, full-time)

The purpose of this role is to manage the Basa brand and voice, communicating Basa's strategic purpose and leading with the development and implementation of an innovative, flexible and agile marketing and communications strategy that makes excellent use of resources, connections and partnerships. The ideal candidate will have demonstrable experience in marketing matched with a deep understanding and knowledge of the creative and cultural sector.
