

FreshlyGround and Sipho “Hotstix” Mabuse at Spier

On Saturday, 25 March 2017, FreshlyGround and Sipho “Hotstix” Mabuse will share the Spier Amphitheatre stage for the first time, as part of Mabuse's 50-year-celebration in music. The show will start at 6pm.

“All the classics will be in there,” Sipho divulges, “Including Burn Out, Shikisha, and many more songs that have shaped me as a musician, philanthropist and father to my beautiful daughters.”

As to what FreshlyGround fans can expect from the multi-platinum-selling globetrotters, with their sixth album currently in final production with Swedish producer Tore Johansson, the band may just offer a sample of what's to come from the group in the months ahead. “There will be material never performed before,” Zolani teases. “There will also be some deviations from the usual popular material too.”

“I’ve never played at Spier before,” Sipho declares. “I’ve also never performed with FreshlyGround before either. I have huge respect for the music they create, and they are lovely people which just enhances the whole experience.”

The much-applauded Around The Fire and Wrestling With Dawn producer, playwright and performer, Siphokazi Jonas will also share the stage on the night, revealing yet another side to her dynamic talent. “I’m delighted to have her open for us,” Sipho says. “I have watched Siphokazi, over the last two years, create her own path and make work for herself, all of which needs to be heard and applauded. I’m really looking forward to a great night.”

A long overdue marriage of two trailblazers, expect pomp, ceremony and a night filled with celebration and tumultuous applause. Join the chorus and come sing along.
