Brothers' Alex and Marc Rantseli are band MarcAlex who exploded on the SA music scene in 1989 with the seminal song, Quick Quick.

After a long break of absence they're back on stage at the GrandWest Arena, Cape Town on the 29 July 2017 in Rocking the City 2017 Down Memory Lane, featuring, Dawne, The Boyz, Da Ballies & Essential. Ticket prices range from R125 to R225 and can be bought via Computicket. I caught up with the duo last week to find out more about what music means to them and more...

▣ What does music mean to you?

Passion and indulgence.

▣ Have you had any funny moments on stage?

When we were doing a gig in Newcastle years ago, someone came on stage to say our clothes are being stolen backstage.

▣ Who are your heroes?

Our Mother Yoli – a teacher all her life and fiercely independent.

■ ■ It's your round, what are you drinking?

Good wine or a rose cider.

■ ■ What is the song you wish you had written?

Careless Whisper by George Michael.

■ What would you say makes you stand out?

Marc Alex – we sound like no one else when we sing.

■ If you were not a musician, what would you be doing?

Run an artist management company.

■ Pick five words to describe yourself?

Always a gentleman and kind.

■ What song changed your life?

Quick Quick – it launched our music careers.

■ What would you say is your favorite fashion garment?

A good suit when I'm in shape, and fresh sneakers

■ What is your greatest achievement?

To still be relevant.

■ What do you complain about most often?

My OCD makes me like clean spaces when that's compromised, I complain a lot.

■ Where would you like to be right now?

Atlantis resort for a week, sipping on something nice with someone nice.
