

Ultra South Africa 2020 unveils phase 3 lineup

Ultra South Africa has unveiled the phase three performers who will take to the stage at The Ostrich Farm in Cape Town on 28 February 2020 and the Nasrec Expo Centre in Johannesburg on 29 February.

Phase three includes the announcement of the resistance lineup, the full South African artist complement as well as the BudX stage and the return of the 5FM stage – both of which will be at the Joburg show.

Steve Aoki, DJ Snake announced in phase 1 lineup of Ultra South Africa 2020

30 Oct 2019

Resistance is offering techno and house beats – featuring international legends including Jamie Jones, Luciano and CamelPhat, South African superstar in the making Shimza, returning local hero Themba and other regional underground fixtures such as Floyd Lavine, Ryan Murgatroyd, Leighton Moody and Pierre Johnston.

JHB Resistance also includes Da Capo, Jullian Gomes, Lemon & Herb and Trancemicsoul.

Regional artists added to Ultra South Africa's bill on the Main Stage and at BudX stage include Sho Majozi, DJ Zinhle, Aero Manyelo, Timo ODV, PHFat, Kyle Watson, Dean FUEL, Protoculture, Abby Nurock, Fresh & Euphonik and many more.

The 5FM stage, hosted by Roger Goode, will see Kyle Cassim, Pascal & Pearce, Ms Cosmo, Guy Herman, No Method, pH, Strange Loving and more.

For the full lineup please and ticket information, visit ultrasouthafrica.com