

All Africa Music Award winners announced!

The eighth All Africa Music Award (Afrima) winners were announced on 22 January in Dakar, Senegal.

Broadcast live to over 84 countries around the world, Afrima in Senegal saw superstars like the Nigerian maverick Davido clinch three awards in one night as he emerged winner of the “Best African Collaboration”, “Best Duo or Group in African Electro”, and “Best Male Artiste in African Inspirational Music” categories, respectively.

Other continental champions such as Egyptian rapper Marwan Moussa followed closely, clinching two awards for “Best African Rapper/Lyricist,” as well as “Best Duo or Group in African Hip Hop” categories, respectively.

Importantly, in the non-voting category, the International Executive Committee bestowed the “Legend Award” for the Afrima to three iconic Senegalese veterans including Youssou N'dour, Baaba Maal, and Ismail Lo.

All the winners across the remaining 39 categories were decided by popular votes from music lovers. The voting period for Afrima began on 25 September and ended on 13 January. The voting procedure and results were reviewed and collated by an international auditor of great repute,
