

Competition offers free student accommodation in PE

CampusKey is running a competition offering free accommodation at its new Scarborough facility in Summerstrand, Port Elizabeth. The competition is open to students aged 18 or over, studying at the Nelson Mandela University (NMU) or a higher education establishment in Port Elizabeth, during the 2018 academic year.

© auremar – 123RF.com

Valued at R64,000, the winner will get a year's accommodation in a Socializer 10 Bed, which are private, fully furnished rooms. Leon Howell, MD of CampusKey, says, "Our Socializer 10 bedroom includes a shower but students share a kitchen, a lounge to relax, work and socialise in, and toilet between 10 rooms.

"The prize also includes 5GB Wi-Fi, monthly cleaning of the shared areas, laundry tokens, water and electricity, biometric access, Safety First with all its security features, a double bed, block-out curtains, a panel heater, wardrobe, bookcase and study. Each unit also offers the use of a Snappy Chef stove, fridge and freezer combo, kettle and microwave oven in the shared kitchen.

CampusKey has a national footprint of 3,769 beds across Port Elizabeth, Bloemfontein, Cape Town, Potchefstroom, Pretoria and Stellenbosch.

To enter the competition, go to www.campuskey.co.za.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>