

Xolani Gwala announces reason for absenteeism

702's Xolani Gwala recently let audiences know that his absence for the last few weeks has been due to medical reasons.

The radio station aired a voice message from Gwala stating the reason for his absence.

He further went on to thank his concerned listeners in the message and reported that the team of medical experts that are working with him is assessing him for treatment options.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>