The Meetings, Incentives, Conferences, and Exhibitions (MICE) industry is booming in Africa, with countries investing millions of dollars in constructing or renovating existing conference facilities. This is largely influenced by the recognition of the continent as a preferred tourist destination, not only for leisure but also for business.

The just concluded Meetings Africa Conference that brought together business events representatives from across Africa, is a stamp on the continent as the best place to hold conferences and meetings in 2017. Here are five of Africa's best conference centers for your next event, both international and domestic (in no particular order).

Kenyatta International Convention Centre (KICC) – Kenya

Located in Kenya's capital city, Nairobi, KICC has a capacity of 5,000 delegates. Nairobi was voted Africa's leading Meetings & Conference Destination at the World Travel Awards 2016.

In 2014, the Kenyan government announced the construction of the largest convention center in Africa, the Bomas International Conference, and Exhibitions Centre at a cost of approximately $561million. With a 10,000-delegate capacity and 15,000 capacity exhibition space, the center will boost Kenya's efforts in becoming Africa's leading conference tourism destination

Radisson Blu Hotel & Convention Center, Kigali - Rwanda

While this is not purely a conference center on its own, the Radisson Blu Hotel & Convention Center, Kigali is creating a buzz in Rwanda's conference tourism, hosting major international events. The state-of-the-art auditorium that can accommodate more than 2,500 delegates and is only a five-kilometer drive from the Kigali International Airport. Luxury accommodation is available at the hotel, a great convenience for guests during events/conferences.

Sandton Convention Centre, Johannesburg - South Africa
