We posted a selection of unusual pics to our social media feeds during Cannes Lions earlier this year. While it was a bit of fun; a way to not take oneself too seriously, it also served as a good way to show off all the amazing creative people in our industry.

Since I took over the reins of the Loeries in 2005, the programme has grown into the largest celebration of creativity across Africa and the Middle East, and Loeries Creative Week is now the largest gathering in the region for the brand communications industry.

ABOUT ANDREW HUMAN

Andrew took over the reins of the Loeries, a non-profit company, in 2005. Since then, the programme has grown into the largest celebration of creativity across Africa and the Middle East, and Loeries Creative Week is now the largest gathering in the region for the brand communications industry. Under his direction, the Loeries now administers the Pendergast, Creative Circle, and Bookmarks awards. From 2016, the Loeries endorse a Kenyan national award...
