

Bytes Managed Solutions appoints new managing director

Fourie van der Merwe has been appointed managing director at Bytes Managed Solutions - the sole distributor of NCR products in South Africa. Van de Merwe's role will involve providing service excellence to meet the technological and service requirements of customers through dedicated organisational quality and high performance parameters.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>