

Vic Vermeulen named Flight Centre Travel Group ambassador

International motivational speaker, Vic Vermeulen has been named the new Flight Centre Travel Group ambassador. Following an accident that left him paralysed, Vermeulen has been using his platform to share his story with motivational speeches along with his best-selling autobiography, The Victor Within.

Vermeulen will join Flight Centre's employee assistance programme that provides advice and guidance to staff members facing economic, work, and life pressures. Using his expertise as a motivational speaker, Vermeulen is to hold one-on-one sessions with staff members and will also attend team leader meetings and workshops as well as host group coaching sessions.
