

Flight Centre Travel Group makes series of strategic appointments

The Flight Centre Travel Group has appointed Kim Taylor as its customer experience director, Melanie Walljee as its implementation director, and Heleen Alberts as its leisure marketing leader.

Furthermore, Craig Long has been appointed as the leader of an automation team, Louise Harty as the corporate marketing leader, and Carlos Luis as the FCTG commercial manager.

The appointments were made to bolster the group's goal of becoming Africa's greatest travel and technology experience company.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>