

Motorola Solutions appoints Claas Kuehnemann

Motorola Solutions, Inc. has named Claas Kuehnemann head of enterprise business in Sub-Saharan Africa and South Africa.

Kuehnemann joins Motorola after an extensive career in major multinational technology corporations such as SAP and IBM, where he filled a number of executive roles. His latest position in IBM was managing partner, general business, Global Business Services, Middle East and Africa, where his responsibilities included securing sales, revenue and profitability for IBM Global Business Services.

In his new position, Kuehnemann will be responsible for planning, developing and executing Motorola Solutions Enterprise Mobility's strategy in South Africa and Sub-Saharan Africa. He is based in Johannesburg.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>