

Botswana to set up media college

Botswana will be launching its first multimedia college in January 2004, in the suburb of Phakalane. Courses on offer will include Film and TV Production, Radio Broadcasting, Journalism, Advertising, Graphic Design and Media Studies. It is expected that these courses will eventually run to degree level monitored by the Botswana Training Authority.

Source: www.mmegi.bw

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>