MultiChoice Africa is delighted to announce that KTN News channel is now available to all DSTV subscribers in the East African region.

Subscribers of DStv in Uganda, Tanzania, Rwanda, Ethiopia, South Sudan, Djibouti, Burundi, Sudan, Somalia and the Seychelles will now have access to the newly-launched 24 hour news channel owned by the Standard Group in Kenya, which promises to keep its audiences engaged and up to date.

The launch of KTN News into the other East Africa countries forms part of MultiChoice's commitment to providing viewers with local channels and content that is relevant to local audiences.

KTN News' primary focus is news, current affairs and information with content ranging from live debates, human interest stories, features, current affairs and documentaries. The channel also incorporates showbiz news, talk shows and live broadcasts.

The scope of the station is coverage from around Kenya, focusing on matters affecting the residents, business opportunities, their social scene, and some political news driven by the governor's agendas among other issues. KTN News will be available on all packages on DStv channel 274.
