

Australian Film Festival launches

Billy Williams, Australia's Acting High Commissioner to South Africa and Cinema Nouveau screened by Nedbank are proud to announce the launch of the Australian Film Festival for 2004. For the first time the Film Festival will travel to both Johannesburg and Cape Town with a diverse and stimulating series of fresh Australian films. They will be showcased at Rosebank Mall (Johannesburg) from 13-19 August and in Cavendish Square (Cape Town) from 20-26 August. Programs will be available at www.sterkinekor.com and from the relevant cinemas.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>