The 10th edition of Top 500 Best Managed Companies is set to be on the shelves in July 2019. In this celebratory edition, we showcase the leaders of South Africa's new era.

South Africa has entered a time imbued with renewal, progress and purpose, and against this backdrop, we bring together a host of CEOs, government leaders and renowned economic analysts to share their assessment of the last decade for South Africa, themselves and their organisations.

Included in the latest issue, is an interview with respected business leader and CEO of Business Leadership SA, Bonang Mohale, who shares his optimism regarding South Africa's future: "I really believe that we are on the right trajectory. The New Dawn has arisen. The Thuma Mina call has been heeded."

Gracing our cover is the highly regarded former Minister of Finance, Mr Trevor Manuel, who, in this exclusive interview, echoes Mr Mohale's enthusiasm: "I'm very confident. There's no question about the deep commitment that we have to South Africa. If you have this commitment, you have to look at where you can influence the situation and improve on the observations that we make and share with many other people."

Our tenth edition is our most eagerly awaited edition yet, promising to be a keepsake/collectible, meaning sustained brand exposure for participating companies looking to grow their impact and influence in our niche, high-end target market.

Where else would you want to be showcasing your company for the next year?

We therefore invite CEOs and MDs of participating brands and companies to take a look back at the history of their company in South Africa, and outline their vision for the next five to ten years.
