

Radio Cape Pulpit 729AM appoints Wanda Bam as new station manager

Radio Cape Pulpit 729AM has appointed Wanda Bam as its new station manager, taking over from former manager Kosie Burger who retired. Bam, a renowned radio presenter, public speaker and author, brings extensive experience in the radio industry to her new role.

She commenced her position in early July. With a career spanning 25 years, Bam began at Radio Pulpit 657AM before relocating to the Cape. Additionally, she possesses a background in the music industry and spent eight years as the head of music, drama and performing arts at a prominent church in Pretoria.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>